A COLLOQUIUM EXPLORING THE LIFE & SPIRIT OF SAINT MARY OF THE CROSS MACKILLOP

PHONE: (03) 9926 9300

Colloquium

(kuh·low·kwee·uhm)

The word 'Colloquium' comes from the Latin word meaning 'Conversation'.

While it is an opportunity to learn about and be touched by the life and spirit of Mary MacKillop, it is also an opportunity for people who work and minister in the tradition of Mary to explore and share the challenges and stirrings in their own hearts and lives, as they respond to this call in a new age.

As participants share their experiences of ministry, and their particular ways of interpreting the spirit of Mary in their work today they inspire and challenge each other to risk new purpose and new commitment.

The challenges facing Mary in 1866 are as relevant today as they were in their time. Their deep concern for those on the margins, their belief in the empowerment of each person, their hope in a world in which justice, peace and equality are worth struggling for.

"Never see a need without doing something about it."

Mary MacKillop

The Colloquium comprises:

- A series of input sessions
- Participant exchange
- Visits to Melbourne sites
- Periods of reflection
- Accreditation approval

"There where you are you will find God"
Mary MacKillop
